

Nolan Young Zabala

youngnolan1@gmail.com ❖ +34 658713885 ❖ Bilbao, Spain

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Bank for International Settlements

Associate

Basel, Switzerland

10/2022 - 09/2023

- Member of the Departmental Research Support team, providing research assistance to economists across the Monetary and Economic Department
- Special focus on supporting the Committee on Payments and Market Infrastructures (CPMI), Financial Stability Board (FSB), and the Innovation and Digital Economy (IDE) research unit
- Conducted data wrangling and analysis, produced graphs and infographics, and built dashboards from scratch

Wavegarden

Commercial Office Intern

Donostia/San

Sebastián, Spain

05/2018-06/2018

- Collected and presented data regarding the company's media exposure
- Translated feasibility studies, commercial documents, and engineering and construction plans from Spanish to English and vice versa

EDUCATION

Barcelona School of Economics

Master's Degree, Specialized Economic Analysis – International Trade, Finance, and Development

Barcelona, Spain

09/2021– 07/2022

- Thesis (co-authored) published in the UPF/UAB public repository: "Fleeing the floods: the local health effects of internally displaced Malawians" (Grade: 9.7/10)

Trinity College Dublin

B.A., Philosophy, Political Science, Economics, and Sociology (PPES)

Dublin, Ireland

09/2017– 05/2021

- First Class Joint Honours degree with specialization in Economics and Political Science
- Thesis: "Forecasting maritime piracy using land-based conflict events" (Grade: First Class)
- International exchange at the University of Toronto in the 2019-20 academic year

SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Language skills: English (Native); Spanish (Native); Professional translation experience
- IT skills: R (Experienced); Python/Tableau (Intermediate); Stata/MySQL/GitHub (Basic)
- Interests: surfing (especially my home breaks on the Basque coast); ultimate frisbee (have competed with the Spanish national team and local clubs in each city I've lived); live music